

SCIENCE SUPERHEROES!

Scan for more science superheroes!

FUJIFILM
Value from Innovation

Charlotte Cho

Charlotte Cho is a superpowered cell found in living things. Cells work together to create life, store DNA, and keep bodies healthy.

Scientists found that Charlotte can make special proteins to help people get better. With the expertise of scientists behind her, she helps create new medicines and treatments for all kinds of problems. Cells like Charlotte are the superheroes of the body, showing how teamwork in science keeps everyone strong and healthy.