

SCIENCE SUPERHEROES!

Peter Pigment

Peter Pigment brightens up the world with the power of colour. Pigments are tiny crystals that make everything colourful, from clothes and toys to photos and art.

In the ink factory, he mixes beautiful colours and special chemicals to create ink. When you use ink to draw or print a picture, Peter and his friends do the magic. Imagination and science together let everyone colour the world with every shade.

